The inwould be as advantageous to themselves when settled on their own hearths as to the families of the middle classes, in which before marriage they officiate as domestic servants. Emigration and abundance of employment have given to the servants at home the upperhand as completely as if they were in Australia. On all sides we hear complaints of the difficulty of finding, and of retaining when found, a cook who can roast a leg of mutton, and make batter-pudding or pea-soup. In point of fact, we have heard of ladies 50 BOXES assorted Tobacco, which will be sold at facwho have it in serious contemplation to dispense with servants altogether, as the least troublesome alternative. REVIEW OF THE WILMINGTON MARKET,

FOR THE WEEK ENDING MARCH 9, 1854. TURPENTINE-Has arrived slowly since our review o Thursday last, and most of the receipts have been of the hard article. The article has ruled steady at our last week's quotations, and all that has come in has been taken by shippers and distillers. The sales for the week ended to-day oot up only 3,653 bbls., viz: Bbls. Yellow dip. Virgin. WILMINGTON GALLERY.

Whichever way you turn, some immortal creation greets your eye. Here you can linger profitably for hours, contemplating the noblest of God's creation-man; here converse silently with the living and the dead, until the withered arm of memory seems again restored and strength-ened, and reaches forth its hand to greet those with who a out leaving so desirable a token of remembrance behind? Here beauty, with its diversity of expression and features, glows forth from the plate with rapturous divinity, and fascinates the eye, until the heart worships them, not like the inimitable virginly Angels, the sainted Madonna, or the blue-bearded Magdalene, but as the unapproachable Daguer-reotypes of relatives and friends, made by Harrison. LUMBER-River-Some 10 @ 12 rafts arrived this week, nine of which have been sold at $7 50 for scantling, $8 50 led pictures or not. Mr. H. is acknowledged to be the best Daguerreotypist in the State. A VISITOR.
